

STAUNCH

POETS AND PLAYERS
PRESENTS

COMPOUND IMAGES

BY DON KINCH

DIRECTED BY

AND

IMRVH BAKARI [AESAR

COMING UP FOR AIR

DESIGNED BY FRAN CARROLL

GLC funded

WITH...TREVA ETIENNE...CECIL GULSTON...JANETTA LAMER

Parminder Vir OBE B.A. & F.H.A.
GLC
1981-1986
Working for London
archive.parmindervir.com

by DON KINCH

COMPOUND IMAGES focuses on the relationship between John and Mary, a black couple living in England. Mary has met some feminists and decided to stop "being a slave". John remembers the good old days back home, and each one explores the possibility of communicating again. This humorous play includes ideas and issues which everyone will recognise in the relations between men and women.

CAST

Performances from 22nd April - 1st June 1985

For further details please contact:

Biddy Roberts, Administrator

STAUNCH, 8b Dulwich Road, Herne Hill
London SE24 0AP

Tel: 01-274 7195